

Prosperous Thoughts

Whenever you are thinking of your financial situation, try to include some of these ideas in addition to your Prosperity Incantations:

Today, I am growing wealthier than ever before.

Today, I draw perfect people, situations, and opportunities to achieve my goals.

Money comes to me from all directions.

Happy financial surprises come my way today and every day.

Large sums of money come to me for the highest good right now.

Everything and everyone prospers me, and I prosper everything and everyone.

I bless each task before me and charge it with prosperity power.

My words have great power. I charge each event in my life with the power of good.

I use my words for good only. I refuse to quarrel, gossip, or participate in negative conversations with others.

My energy is balanced. I am constantly poised and serene.

My connection with Infinite Intelligence (God, Spirit, Goddess, etc) is adequate to yield me a substantial personal fortune.

My income is constantly increasing.

By day and night, I prosper, advancing and growing wealthier.

Every day, in every way, I am becoming more and more financially prosperous.

It is right for me to be rich, happy, wealthy, and successful.

My wealth brings only good to everyone and everything.

I use my wealth wisely.

Money is my good friend.

I have what it takes to be rich, happy, and thriving.

I am grateful for an immediate increase in my financial income right now.

I give thanks that all my financial and other needs are instantaneously met.

I am good and deserve to be wealthy, happy, and thriving.

All my goals manifest easily and relaxed, in healthy and positive ways, for the highest good of all, and at the perfect time.

Money constantly circulates in my life, and there is always a divine surplus.
